NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

Territory of New Mexico—Office of the Secretary—Certificate of Comparison—J. Nathan Jaffa, Secretary of the Territory of New Mexico, do hereby certify that there was filed for record in this office at 10:30 o'clock a. m., on the twenty-fourth day of March, A. D. 1909, articles of incorporation of The National Benevolent Society, No. 5867, and also, that I have compared the following copy of the same, with the original thereof now on file, and declare it to be a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the Territory of New Mexico, at the City of Santa Fe, the capital, on this twenty-fourth day of March, A. D. 1909.

(Seal) NATHAN JAFFA, Secretary of New Mexico.

Articles of Incorporation of The National Benevolent Society.

Know all men by these presents: That we, Harry C. Kelley, Julia F. Kelley, Charles O'Malley, Miguel F. Desmarais and Charles W. G. Ward, all being residents of the Territory of New Mexico, have this day associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the provisions of an act of the Thirty-fifth Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, entitled "An act to regulate the formation and government of corporations for mining, manufacturing and other pursuits," approved March 15th, 1905; and we hereby certify as follows:

ARTICLE I

The corporate name of the said corporation is "The National Benevolent Society."

ARTICLE II

The principal place of business of this corporation is Suite No. 7 in the Pioneer Block, City of Las Vegas, New Mexico, and Harry C. Kelley is hereby named and designated as the agent in charge thereof, and upon whom process against the said corporation may be served.

ARTICLE III

The objects for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

(1) To promote the social, fraternal and financial welfare of its members.

(2) To hold regular meetings of its members for mutual improvement and the promotion of social culture, and the cultivation of a spirit of fraternity and benevolence, at such times and places as provided for by the laws of the corporation.

(3) To seek cooperation for and membership in the society throughout the Territory of New Mexico, and to that end to organize subordinate branches of the said society wherever may be desired in said territory.

(4) To minister to the material wants of unfortunate members of the society, to alleviate distress and minister to the sick among the members of the society and their families.

As subsidiary to and in furtherance of, but not in limitation of the powers conferred by the acts of and the laws of the Territory of New Mexico, or the objects herein stated, it is hereby expressly provided that the said corporation shall also have and exercise the following powers, to-wit:

(a) To do all things herein specified as objects, purposes and powers to the same extent and with like force and effect as a natural person might or could do the same, and do them in any part of the territory of New Mexico as principal, agent, trustee or otherwise.

(b) To maintain in addition to the office in the city of Las Vegas, one or more offices for the furtherance of the aims and purposes of this society, and to appoint officers to the management of such offices.

(c) To purchase, own or lease, or in any legitimate way acquire any real or personal property that may be requisite or advantageous to the maintenance and welfare of the society throughout the territory of New Mexico, and to erect any offices or buildings upon real estate, acquired by the society, which may be considered by the board of directors to be advantageous and to the interests of the society.

(d) To pay to every member of this society who shall become disabled in body, suffer physical injury or illness a sum to be specified in the by-laws, according to age, and the nature and character of the illness, accident or disability, this indemnity to be paid from the proceeds of monthly dues paid by the members; also to pay to the person indicated in the certificate of any member of this society, or to the estate of deceased, if so directed in said certificate, a sum of money for funeral benefits, under conditions specified in the by-laws, and in the amount therein specified, upon the death of any member of this society who has met his death by accident.

(e) To create a reserve fund from the proceeds of the monthly dues of the members of this society, with a view to lessening, when the amount of money of such fund may be considered by the board of directors to be sufficient, the amount of monthly dues to be paid by the members, it being also the intention to draw upon the reserve fund of the society for the payment of benefits if there should at any time be insufficient money in the benefit fund, provided for by the by-laws, to pay such benefits, or whenever it shall be considered wise and proper by the board of directors, to draw upon the reserve fund for the payment of benefits.

(f) To make, enter into and execute contracts of every kind and character with the members of this society and with individuals, firms and associations and corporations, private, public or municipal, and with the territory of New Mexico.

(g) To do each and every thing necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or any one of the objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear necessary or expedient for the protection or benefit of this corporation, or of its members, and in general to perform those functions which are usual, proper and incident to a benevolent society organized for the purposes of promoting the fraternal and material interests of its members.

ARTICLE IV

It is expressly provided that this society shall have no capital stock, that there shall be no stockholders, but that the total and sole income to accrue to this society shall be the membership monthly dues, and voluntary contributions of its members.

ARTICLE V

The names and postoffice addresses of the incorporators are as follows: Harry C. Kelley, Julia F. Kelley and Charles O'Malley, all of East Las Vegas, New Mexico, and Miguel F. Desmarais of Las Vegas, New Mexico, and Charles W. G. Ward of East Las Vegas, New Mexico.

ARTICLE VI

The time for which said corporation is to exist is fifty years after the date of its incorporation.

ARTICLE VII

The numbers of directors shall not be less than three nor more than seven, and the names of the directors who are appointed for the first three months are Harry C. Kelley, Julia F. Kelley, Charles O'Malley, Miguel F. Desmarais and Charles W. G. Ward.

In furtherance of, and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors are expressly authorized: To hold its meetings, to have one or more offices and to keep the books of the corporation within the territory of New Mexico, at such places as from time to time may be designated by them.

To make, alter, amend and rescind the by-laws of the corporation, to fix, determine, from time to time, and vary the amount of the membership dues to be paid by the members, so that such dues shall be sufficient for the maintenance of this society and the furtherance of the purposes and objects for which the society is organized.

To fix the amounts necessary for the maintenance of the offices of this society and the amounts to be paid to the agents and officers of said society.

To appoint additional officers to the corporation, such as vice-presidents, sub-agents and assistant secretaries, and provide for the emoluments of such officers; and, to the extent provided in the by-laws, the persons so appointed shall have and may exercise all the powers of the president, of the treasurer and of the secretary, respectively. Provided, however, that all vice-presidents shall be chosen from the directors.

By a resolution passed by a majority vote of the whole board, under suitable provision of the by-laws, to designate two or more of their number to constitute an executive committee, which committee shall for the time being, as provided in the resolution, or in the by-laws, have and exercise any or all of the powers of the board of directors, which may be lawfully delegated in the management of the affairs and business of the corporation, and shall have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

The board of directors and the executive committee shall, except as otherwise provided by law, have power to act in the following manner, to-wit: A resolution in writing signed affirmatively, approved by all members of the board of directors or by all members of the executive committee, and thereafter with original or with duplicated signatures, inserted in the recorded minutes and properly dated, shall be deemed to be action by such board or such committee, as the case may be, to the extent therein expressed, with the same force and effect as if the same had been duly passed by the same vote at a regular meeting.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the by-laws may prescribe the number of directors to constitute a quorum at their meeting, and such number may be less than a majority of the whole number.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in this certificate in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute for the amendment of the certificate of incorporation.

It witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 18th day of March, A. D. 1909.

HARRY C. KELLEY, JULIA F. KELLEY, M. F. DESMARAIS, CHAS. O'MALLEY, CHAS. W. G. WARD.

Territory of New Mexico, County of San Miguel—ss.

On this 18th day of March, A. D. 1909, before me personally appeared Harry C. Kelley, Julia F. Kelley, Charles O'Malley, Miguel F. Desmarais and Charles W. G. Ward, to me personally known and known to be the persons described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and each acknowledged that he or she executed the same as his or her free and voluntary act and deed, and for the uses and purposes in the foregoing certificate mentioned.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

(Seal) LOUIS C. HILFELD, Notary Public, San Miguel County. My commission expires January 13, 1912.
